

Sunday A.M.

Karen Clark Sheard

One Sunday morning
I wanna tell my story It's been a long week and my spirit is feeling kind of low.
Been giving a hundred percent of myself every where I go
When you pour out so much of yourself it just seems like it's never enough
People are hurting everywhere life has been tough But on Sunday morning
There's a word waiting for me
On Sunday morning
Let the Lord minister to me
On Sunday morning
Into his presence worship will usher you
On Sunday morning, morning, morning
The spirit of the Lord will revive you
If I can just get you to Sunday morning
It's been a long week and my spirit is feeling kind of low.
Been giving a hundred percent of myself every where I go
When you pour out so much of yourself it just seems like it's never enough
People are hurting everywhere life has been tough
But on Sunday morning
Into his presence worship will usher you
On Sunday morning
Spirit of the Lord will revive you
If I can just get you to Sunday morning
Ooh ooh...
Sunday
Ooh ooh...
Sunday
Ooh...
Sunday If I can just get you to Sunday morning
Anybody know about Sunday morning...
