

Love Never Dies

Mr Hudson

I still hear you,
I still see you
When I close my eyes
I could still feel you
And I still want you,
Love never dies
Love...love...love never dies
Love...love...love never dies We must have sat upon an old bench
For ten long summers
First it was weed, girls and football,
Then it was greed and birds and alcohol
I won't forget the night that
We just couldn't make you listen
You thought you were always right
But you were so, so wrong you were so headstrong,
And now you're gone But I still hear you
I still feel you
When I close my eyes,
I still need you
And we still want you,
You see, love never dies
Love...love...love never dies
Love...love...love never dies Your motorbike is resting
Abandoned by the playground
Because it was throwing rocks and climbing trees now it's pushing rocks and transfer fees
