

Face for Today

Duran Duran

A little rain of comfort in the afternoon
To brighten up the room
To lighten up your mood
The whole world is a mix spot on a plastic spoon
You can find it, or invite it
Live beside it, laughing till you're crying Hold on to your time, boy
Don't be scared of what they say
You're pulling a fight, girl
If you got the face for today, yeah Around, around the wall of death, around you go
What keeps you in the air
Is having not a care
(Yeah) and time flies like a dancing man
On crystal glow
You can find it, or invite it
Live beside it, laughing till you're crying Hold on to your time, boy
Don't be scared of what they say
You're pulling a fight, girl
You've got that thing which makes them smile, yeah
Hold on to your time, boy
Wake up your old-style cachet
You're pulling a fight, girl
If you got the face for today, yeah Yeah When you got the face for today, yeah
Hold on to your time, boy
Don't be scared of what they say
You're pulling a fight, girl
You've got that thing which makes them smile, yeah
Hold on to your time, boy
Wake up on that speeding train
You're putting a fight, girl
If you got the face for today, yeah
The face for today, yeah
The face for today, yeah

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>