

Glorious Love

Alison Moyet

Aaa

Ohh, ohh, ohh, ohh, ohh, ohh, ohhSomewhere in the shadows of your eyes

An element that takes me by surprise

Somethin' wants to pull me to my feet

Willing me to go into retreat

But how can I get up and walk away

When ninety-nine percent decides to stay

And watch the other fade to greyThis glorious love will tear us down

When nothin' is left to turn around

And givin' it all is not enough

For this glorious loveThis pleasure never ought to be denied

For this is joy personified

You can speak to me of give and take

When I could take of you for taking's sake

But how can I deny what's on my mind

Knowin' it to be of my design

Relegated, I resignThis glorious love will tear us down

And givin' it all is not enough

For this glorious loveTununananana, tununananana, tununananana

(Ya, ya, ya)

Tununananana, tununananana, tununananana

(Ya, ya, ya)This glorious love will tear us down

And givin' it all is not enough

For this glorious loveSomewhere in the shadows of your eyes

(Aaa)

An element that takes me by surprise

(Aaa)

Somethin' wants to pull me to my feet

(Aaa)

Willing me to go into retreat

(Aaa)

But how can I get up and walk away

(Aaa)

When ninety-nine percent decides to stay

(Aaa)

And watch the other fade to greyThis glorious love will tear us down

And givin' it all is not enough
For this glorious love This glorious love will tear us down
And givin' it all is not enough
For this glorious love This glorious love will tear us down
And givin' it all is not enough
For this glorious love
This glorious
