Nightliner

Fabulous Disaster

I don't think I'll recover
I don't think I'll return
You took my heart, broke it in two
Then made me watch it burn
I'm really on my own now
I feel so all alone
I get that sinking feeling
I won't be coming homeNightliner [x2]You made me realize
All that I have to learn
You opened up my eyes
Now I deserve a turn
I get all choked up thinking
We coulda had it all
Instead you cut the rope
And enjoyed watching me fallNightliner [x2]
