All You

The Cataracs

All you tonight, lift me up
All you tonight, fill my cup
All you tonight, get me through
All you tonight, all youI see you looking but you trying to act cool, right
You don't even care what a dude right,
Prolly wanna pick, prolly want 2 right
If the girls get ugly and the mood right
Lil moon light go ahead and let it go
I don't mean to come across too sexual, oh, oh
But that ass is epic though
Titanic, Saga, volcanic, hot lava, burning up, I can serve it up
Like Luke, I am your father
Only if you wanna, take a trip in each other waters
Take this bedroom and turn it into a saunaShe's sending me drinks, I fed her one back
She said hey boy, you're drinking too fast
And we can take it slow, you'll never be alone
She's telling meAll you tonight, lift me up
All you tonight, fill my cup
All you tonight, get me through
All you tonight, all youIf I want her, I'ma get her,
Send the waitress over
Quit that bullshit, girl bend that ass over
Mr. Round of Applause, I can do it with no hands
I go hard in the pay, she ain't even gotta chance
Talk about yourself, bring a couple friends
Shows up in Japan, tell your friends,
I'm the man, ask your man
Pop it, pop it down, make that ass clap, clap
Make that ass clap, clapShe's sending me drinks, I fed her one back
She said hey boy, you're drinking too fast
And we can take it slow, you'll never be alone
She's telling meAll you tonight, lift me up
All you tonight, fill my cup
All you tonight, get me through
All you tonight, all youAll you tonight, lift me up
All you tonight, fill my cup
All you tonight, get me through
All you tonight, all youIf I want her, I'ma get her,
Send the waitress over

Quit that bullshit, girl bend that ass over
bend that ass over
bend that ass over
Quit that bullshit, girl bend that ass overAll you tonight, lift me up
All you tonight, fill my cup
All you tonight, get me through
All you tonight, all youAll you tonight, lift me up
All you tonight, fill my cup
All you tonight, get me through
All you tonight, all you
