What Game Shall We Play Today

Chick Corea & Gary Burton

Look around you my people
If you look then you will see
How to love, life is paradise all together
What game shall we play today?Man just wants to be happy
Cast off things that shouldn't be Set him free, life is paradise all together
What game shall we play today?There's a way you can find it
It's within you, can't you see
Find the truth, it's not impossible all together
What game shall we play today?
Here we are all together
Free to have and do and be
What we see, for the first time all together
What game shall we play today?
