

Relatively Permanent

Chris Staples

I wonder if we'll still be together,
Several years down the line.
Well how could I know,
You can't know either.
This could be an accident,
Or relatively permanent.
But either way, I'm gonna stay,
And love you for another day. How lucky can two people get.
Hand in hand, side by side.
A coincidence we even met.
This could be an accident,
Or relatively permanent.
But either way, I'm gonna stay
And love you for another day.
