

I Could Be President

Say Anything

was i born to sink into this couch and watch my whole world bleed its purpose out?
around the insects follow patterns to their deaths while i waste my precious breath on another second guessi'm afraid i'm afraid of sleeping
i'm afraid
i'm afraid of sleeping in i feel so dead to the world just tell me where do i begin cause
i'm afraid
i'm afraid of breathing in these nightmares are so weird it's like i'm drowning at the bottom of a bottle of beer that my father sips between the humorous quips of the late night comedy news shows he frequents and i wake up with the devil in my sheets i took to her shoulders asking was it good for me i'm afraid
i'm afraid of breathing in if only i were present then i could be the president! if only i were present then
i could be the president!
yeah! i'm afraid

i'm afraid of breathing in
