

Colorado Sunrise

3OH!3

One, two, three
And if I had something to say to you I'd whisper it softly
Kiss you on your rosy lips and never let you off me
Shiver on your roof and see your face lit by starlight
Hold you through the night and watch that Colorado sunrise
I've got five fingers on each hand for every mistake that I've made
'Cause my tongue is tied to tonsils and I need to shit and shave
I'm a shade too pale for handsome and have habits I can't shake
But if you try to take that from me, well I'll never be the same
Train wreck that I am
And I am what I am, what I am, what I am
A train wreck that I am
And I am what I am, what I am, what I am
A train wreck
And as long as it's okay with you I think I'll stay right here
I got no where to go 'cause where to go is up to you dear
Happy as a clam I see the glimmer in your eyes
Hold you through the night and watch that Colorado sunrise
No car and never cared because I got no place to go
But in a room, a single wall I couldn't pay a plant to grow
You can try and make this pretty, pick up all my dirty clothes
And if you never really get me then I guess you'll never know the Train wreck that I am
And I am what I am, what I am, what I am
A train wreck that I am
And I am what I am, what I am, what I am
A train wreck
I've got five fingers on each hand for every mistake that I've made
'Cause my tongue is tied to tonsils and I need to shit and shave
I'm a shade too pale for handsome and have habits I can't shake
But if you try to take that from me, well I wouldn't be the same
Train wreck that I am
And I am what I am, what I am
What I am, a train wreck that I am
And I am what I am, what I am, what I am
A train wreck that I am
And I am what I am, what I am, what I am
A train wreck that I am
And I am what I am, what I am, what I am
A train wreck
