

Hearts and Flowers

Riptides

Hearts and flowers
A picture of what a love should be
 But when it comes
 It's deeper than
 The darkest seaSometimes, I'm so alone
 Even in your arms
 Like each of us
 Keeps a little wall
 Inside our heartsHearts and flowers
 Those people that
 Make up valentines
 Forget the flesh and blood of love
 Like yours and mineSometimes, I'm so alone
 Even in your arms
 Like each of us
 Keeps a little wall
 Inside our heartsHearts and flowers
 A candy coated fantasy
 But in your soul
 I've found the one
 My soul can seeSometimes, I'm so alone
 Even in your arms
 Like each of us
 Keeps a little wall
 Inside our heartsLike each of us
 Keeps a little wall
 Inside our hearts
 Inside our hearts
