

Boys Don't Cry

Natalia Kills

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I'll be yours tonight,
But don't hold me too tight...
When we say goodbye
Remember, boys don't cry. I wanna love you in the worst way baby
You gotta kiss me just to taste a little danger
Can you take it?
I might break it...
Getcha getcha get you on your bad behavior Take it or leave it
You're the one that needs it
Wanna feel that rush
But it hurts too much
When your heart gets crushed... I'll be yours tonight,
But don't hold me too tight...
When we say goodbye
Remember, boys don't cry.
[x2] I wanna kiss you where it hurts pretty baby
One little touch I'm gonna bring you to your knees yeah
I'm gonna tease ya
Through your jeans yeah
But when it's over better catch amnesia Be my dirty little secret
When I'm tearing off your t-shirt
Wanna feel that rush
But it hurts too much
When your heart gets crushed I'll be yours tonight,
But don't hold me too tight...
When we say goodbye
Remember, boys don't cry.
[x2] (Did I say too much? What is too much?)
Don't fucking tell me when I've had too much.
Just one more Johnny... please?
Who me? Never officer!
I'm over the limit? What is the limit really?) I'll be yours tonight,

But don't hold me too tight...
When we say goodbye
Remember, boys don't cry.
[x2]Remember, boys don't cry...Remember, boys don't cry!
