Pass the Ammunition

Jaya The Cat

How'd it all get so confused?
Last night I was smoking weed and watching the news
And as far as I can tell the whole deals screwed
Everyones got a gun and their own version of the truth
They're turning profits in the name of prophets
Everything we had I guess we lost it
And all this god shit, it's enough to make me vomit
Keep your redemption I don't want itUnder god, one nation
Load the rocket launchers lead us not into temptation
And we'll roll our tanks straight thru the gates of heaven
Singing praise the lord, and pass the ammunitionHow'd we get so lost?
Seems like in the human race the humans lost
Everyone wants the credit, no one takes the blame
Everyone's pointing fingers but it all just sounds the same
And if you check the terrorists
Down to the presidents
When you add it up it's just the same old rhetoric
And all this god shit, it's enough to make me vomit
Keep your redemption I don't want itUnder god, one nation
Strap some nitro to your waist lead us not into temptation
And we'll carry our sins with us to heaven
Singing praise the lord and pass the ammunition.
