Mr. Morgan

Avail

Drop out of my league For the mean time I am older now But I feel the same I missed my prime And from now on I'm looked down upon
I've tried everything And I wonder why I feel the same
Everlasting Attempt to regress You can't expect to But it's expected of you To look the part Or you won't get it
And we wonder why We all live in the past Pressure Still I Have tried
