

Rain

Trivium

Every time I'm left alone
My misery begins to drown me
Tied by a rope of anxiety
Thrown overboard As I'm pulled under the tides of this fast paced world
I refuse to see [Chorus]
Time will always be the thing that kills me truly
Open these eyes waking from a dream feigning My lungs fill up with letdown Disappointment in self and everyone
Expectations died in failure abandonment my unsavior As I'm pulled under the tides of this fast paced world
I refuse to see [Chorus] Absolution at the sight of your demise
I know what I must do
Choke
Die choking on your every word Swallow every blasphemy Absolution at the sight of your demise
I know what I must do Swallow every blasphemy
Eat out your heart and make it bleed
Tie the noose around my neck
Make this life end
