Time To Waste

Alkaline Trio

There's someone down below

Blowing you a kiss

They watch from their windowsAs all arms fall to their sides

And all eyes fix

On the death of tomorrowAnd you found everything you need

To make a life complete

Completely revoltingAnd they have safety and relief

For sale on the street

I see you in line every dayYou had time to waste

And I'm not sorry

Such a basket case

Hide the cutleryI had time to kill

It's dead and buried

You've got guts to spill

But no one trust-worthy These creatures are waking up

In these dark trees

Waiting like vulturesAnd eyes roll back

Turn white in time to feed

They salivate in hunger for youAnd everything they need

To make a death complete

Completely unnatural And salvation lies

Behind those dead eyes

That watch you while you sleep every night and You had time to waste

And I'm not sorry

Such a basket case

Hide the cutleryI had time to kill

It's dead and buried

You've got guts to spill

But no one trust-worthy You had time to waste

And I'm not sorry

Such a basket case

Hide the cutleryI had time to kill

It's dead and buried

But no one trust-worthy
