

Lost Without You

Stephen Fretwell

I was lost and nothing made any sense

I was tied to the fence

And I seen you

Like a flower trying to grow

But still I don't know

What really I should show oh no

But I'm lost without you

Yes I'm lost without you

Is there a cost attached to you

Take your time

Please don't think too much

Because I think too much

And it kills me like a needle to my bones

Everybody knows, everybody knows, oh no

But I'm lost without you

Yes I'm lost without you

Is there a cost attached to you

Yes I'm lost without you

Yes I'm lost without you
