

Breakdown Model

Mutya Buena

MmmmmYou shouldn't have made me wait
You shouldn't have made me wait at Breakdown Motel
You shouldn't have made me wait
You shouldn't have left me by myselfYou managed to knock me out
But I promise you, babe, I will come roundOne day you were near me, but not for long
And the strange has sweet become
We can't hold on to the things we love
So don't hold onSo you can fly to the moon above
To find something new
When you're back in this atmosphere
You can't help being blue, youYou shouldn't have made me wait
You shouldn't have made me wait at Breakdown Motel
You shouldn't have made me wait
You shouldn't have let me scare myselfYou managed to knock me out
But I promise you, babe, I will come roundSo you can go anywhere you want
But it won't lead nowhere
It's always strange when I check out up here
And you're not thereYou shouldn't have made me wait
You shouldn't have made me wait at Breakdown Motel
You shouldn't have made me wait
You shouldn't have left me by myselfYou shouldn't have made me wait
You shouldn't have made me wait at Breakdown Motel
You shouldn't have made me wait
You shouldn't have let me scare myselfYou managed to knock me out
But I promise you, babe, I will come round
