

On Her Mind

Duncan Sheik

She's wearing the t-shirt
Of a band I really like
Maybe it's coincidence
Maybe it's alright I keep thinking about the way
She said, "I'll see you soon"
Was it more than words? I'm just tryin' to find What's on her mind? I don't know when I'll see her
But I'm sure that I will
I know it's just another matter of time
Some more time to kill Well I can imagine so many things
Her and I sometime in the spring
Something's happening I'm just tryin' to find
What's on her mind? I want peace but I don't make it
I want love but I don't give it
I want hope but I can't find it
And I want her to heal me She's wearing the t-shirt
Of my favorite band
Well I should've told her
That I was a fan People say I should just leave it be
Leave it up to destiny
But that ain't for me I'm just trying to find
What's on her mind?
Well I'm just trying to find
What's on her mind? I want peace but I don't make it
I want love but I don't give it
I want hope but I can't find it
And I want her to heal me I want peace but I don't make it
I want love but I don't give it
I want hope but I can't find it
And I want her to heal me
Yeah, I want her to heal me
Oh, I want her to heal me
Yeah, I want her to heal me
