Cold Piece

Jerry Cantrell

Been awhile and you see his face
So you can't ignore the waste
All the empty spaces
No one home, leaving only tracesGive up, go 'way
He's not yours to save
And if you decide
He's not that kindHe got a cold piece inside
Cold piece insideNow you hear that there's something wrong
Though it's sad, he lives his song
Ever changing
Stranded on the notes remainingGive up, go 'way
He's not yours to save
And if you decide
He's not that kindHe got a cold piece inside
Cold piece insideIn your sunshine
In your sunshine
Where's your sunshine now?Average all, let it in my son
To be, is worth the damage done
You have no halo
Don't spend your time sniffing
'Round dead shadowsGive up, go 'way
I'm not yours to save
And if you decide
I'm not that kindHe say, give up, go 'way
I'm not yours to save
And if you decide
I'm not that kindI got a cold piece inside
Cold piece insideIn your sunshine
In your sunshine
Where's your sunshine now ?
