

On the Floor

IceJFFish

[Verse 1: IceJFFish]

It's something about ya girl, that just makes my head wanna twirl, oh you got me want to tell all them other girls, there's nothing else better in this world! the moment i seen her i was in shock so shocked you would've think I've just been shot, shot down right now in this spot.
But too bad this doesn't happen a lot.
Oh girl you got me visualizing me on top, on top of your hot body while were sweating a lot, a lot of time on the clock before we have to stop.
too bad shes not into that stuff a lot, oh man shes really super hot, hotter than the sun that's right on top, Oh man there she goes i had to stop, and ask her some questions that i had in stock.[Hook: IceJFFish] (2x) She said she want's to take it slow, i'm not that type of guy ill let cha know, when i see that red light all i know is go, so baby girl lets do this on the floor.[Verse 2: IceJFFish] yeah lets get up on the floor, show me your moves that makes you such a pro, a pro at being the one that i want to know, oh yeah girl imma let you know, your the one that I'm really into boo, a million places i could be but I'm here with you. me and you can invent something that's new,
that we only know that's between us two.
Oh girl you drove me out my mind, since you did that I'm digging deep in your spine, did you ever get the hint that I'm claiming your mine? yeah that's whats going on this time.
I would put my life on the line, the line just to be the one to call you mine, now I'm picking up the phone just to call your line, because baby girl you're on my mind.[Verse 1: IceJFFish]
