

One Thing I Know

Randy Rogers Band

Woke up today and things have changed
The man I've become just ain't the same
Wanted to run but there was just nowhere to go
Livin' in a dream world, praying that it don't show
Who I am, is who you want me to be
But I'm havin' a hard time findin' me
So, take my hand, darling, just let me go
I gotta do this by myself, that's one thing I know
Livin' my life on low fuel
Tellin' myself that I'm a damn fool
All of my friends would tell me how I'm brave
Little do you know I almost lost it yesterday
'Cause who I am, is who they want me to be
But I'm havin' a hard time findin' me
Take my hand, darling just let me go
I gotta do this by myself, that's one thing I know
I got these demons on my trail
I'm crazy and messed up, no one else can tell
'Cause who I am, is who they want me to be
But I'm havin' a hard time findin' me
Don't take my hand, darling, just let me go
I gotta do this by myself, that's one thing I know
I gotta do this all alone, that's one think I know
