Jump In My Car

David Hasselhoff

Jump in my car
I wanna take you home
Jump in my car
It's too far walk on your own(No, thank you, sir)
Ah, come on I'm a trustworthy guy
(No, thank you, sir)
Oh little girl, I wouldn't tell you no lies
(I know your game)How can you say that we only just met
(You're all the same)
Ooh she's got me there, but I'll get her yet
(I got you there)No, you didn't, I was catching my breath
And look it's starting to rain
And baby you'll catch your death
(Well, I dunno)
Ah, come it comes nothing to try
And you'll arrive home nice and dryJump in my car
I wanna take you home
Come on jump in my car
It's too far to walk on your ownJump in my car
I wanna take you home
Come on jump in my car
It's too far to walk on your own(Well, maybe I will)
Ah that's better now your talking sense
(But you best keep still)
Well, if you like I'll just put up a fence(No need to get smart)
Well, alright we'll soon be on our way
(Well, we better start)
What for?
(Because it's such a long way)Well, why, where'd you live?
(I live down south, it's roughly 85 miles)
Hey slow down, you must be joking
There behind that cute smile
(Oh no I'm not)Well, if you're not, there's only one thing to say
(And what's that?)
Get outta the car get on your wayGet outta my car
(But you just said that you'd take me home)
Well, it's just too far(But there's no way I can get there alone)
I couldn't care less
(Well, maybe I could see you next week)

But you look a mess(Well, look who's talking, you've got no right to speak)
Get outta my car
(You told me that you were a really nice guy)
Ooh well, I ain't
Well, yeah get outta my car
Get out, get out of my car
