

Stay and Drown

Finger Eleven

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

Good God, have I been dreaming
This paralyzing feeling?
Was I left alone? Where have you gone?
Were you somewhere else just sleeping? If I wait to wake you
I'll never ask you Would you take my hand in the deepest end
Would you stay and drown in me?
Take my hand in the deepest end
My open eyes see everything But I'm passing all the days
Through a window pane
And as the scene would change
I'd stay the same This paradise was nothing new
But the paradise gets tired of you
A single conversation
Stole my attention Would you take my hand in the deepest end
Would you stay and drown in me?
Take my hand in the deepest end
Would you stay and drown in me? My open eyes see everything
And you see nothing
And don't forget it Take my hand in the deepest end
Would you stay and drown in me?
Take my hand in the deepest end
Would you stay and drown in me? Take my hand in the deepest end
Would you stay and drown in me?
Would you stay and drown in me?
Would you stay and drown in me?
