Last Call (We All Fall Down)

Bleu Edmondson

Look at us here, sittin around pissed off at the world
Pretending to drown a memory and fix reality
Afraid to admit, here in the bar
Were pieces of shit, pretend we arent what we are
Its sad, tonight Ive got it badBut theres nothin I can do
And theres nothin you can say
Somebody hurt me, somebody hurt you
Last call, we all fall down
A haunted family, we all belong to
Last call, we all fall downSome drink redemption, some take the pills
Crazy Jake in the corner runs a special on thrills
A means to an end, everybodys best friend
Maybe somebody ran out, maybe you pushed them away
Maybe you caught her on top when you came home early today
I know, I knowBut theres nothin I can do
And theres nothin you can say
Somebody hurt me, somebody hurt you
Last call, we all fall down
A haunted family, we all belong to
Last call, we all fall downSitting here screamin not makin a sound
Theres a slow rolling darkness on the edge of town
Well make it through somehow
Weve got each other nowSomebody hurt me, somebody hurt you
Last call, we all fall down
A haunted family, we all belong to
Last call, we all fall down
Last call, we all fall down
Last call, we all fall down
