Bully

Three Days Grace

He wakes haunted with voices in his head
Nobody knows it but today he won't go unnoticed
He can't forget, can't forgive for what they said
He's never been so hurt but today the screaming is overBlame the family, blame the bully
Blame it all on me maybe he needed to be wanted
Blame the family, blame the bully
Maybe he needed to be wantedShe takes the long way home, fighting her emotions
She's a loner but tonight she won't go unnoticed
She can't remember, when she loses her temper
Nobody knows her but tonight the silence is overBlame the family, blame the bully
Blame it all on me maybe she needed to be wanted
Blame the family, blame the bully
Blame it all on me maybe she needed to be wantedBlame the family, blame the bully
Blame it on me, maybe they neededBlame the family, blame the bully
Blame it on me, maybe they needed to be wanted
Blame the family, blame the bully
Blame it on me, maybe they needed to be wanted, wanted
