

Take Me Home

Young the Giant

Sweetness
On the rips of your old dress
Twilight
Passed the banks of the warm fire
Whispers in the dark
They hit the trees
And they run into your heart to find mama's sleeves
Daddy ain't awake yet and daylights gone
You're afraid of the dark you think of mama's bones
Cuz I cant live like this
Because I heard your mama cry
Behind the door I'm listenin'
She said shes gonna fly
With words your mouth shes kissing
And she said woah-oh oh oh child
Your back is straight
Don't let hurt curve it that way
Nah nah nah
Sweetness
On the ribs of your bare chest
Twilight
On the roof of that snowy night
You ran outside without your boots on
And if you could be lost you'd find yourself at home
Where mamas house is up on the sunrise
Sweet good god just take me by surprise
Cuz I cant live like this
Cuz I heard your mama cry
Behind the door I'm listenin'
She says shes gonna fly
With words your mouth shes kissin'
And she said woah-oh oh oh child
Your back is straight
Don't let hurt curve you that way
But I said mama please just take me home
Cuz I cant stand bein' alone
This pain is shooting down my spine again I said
Daddy's feelin' sick oh I think he's gonna quit
Sweetness
On the mouth of your caress
Twilight
Past the stars of that open night

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnlyrics.com/>