

Indoor Living

Motion City Soundtrack

Outside the side lines failing harder than the martyred
Stars of made for TV crime
Indoor living in cardboard confines counts for very little
When safe is just a state of mind
I fell off the side lines long ago
I have no occupation
I'm just wasted for the weekend scene So don't me ask me out
Don't make me try
'Cause I don't wanna let you
I don't wanna I can't complain
If I don't know how
It's a sad, sad song, with no story line
I fall asleep in my rented room
It's not much to talk about
And I got so much to talk about
But I don't wanna let you
I don't wanna let you down Last call for societal knockdowns
Measure my endeavors
Loosely based on someone else's song
Melodrama and a bottle of wine, yeah
Here's to self expression
Here's to every one night stand
Bring back the days that fell behind
I'm a wasted conversation in the corner of an empty room So don't ask me out
Don't make me try
'Cause I don't wanna let you
I don't wanna I can't complain
If I don't know how
It's a sad, sad song with no story line
I fall asleep in my rented room
It's not much to talk about
I've got so much to talk about
But I don't wanna let you
I don't wanna let you down I can't complain
If I don't know how
It's a sad, sad song with no story line
I fall asleep in my rented room
It's not much to talk about
And I've got so much to talk about

But I don't wanna let you
I don't wanna let you down Outside the side lines failing harder than the martyred
Stars of made for TV crime
So don't ask me out don't make me try
'Cause I'm just gonna let you
I'm just gonna let you down

Lyrics provided by
<https://damnllyrics.com/>