

What If You Don't Fly

Superdrag

So long, goodbye
I never cried that much for you
But that's a lie
Just like the book you're seeing through You don't know why
You hate the human things you do
But when you die
Lover you'll be sorry, sorry 'Cuz when you die, what if you don't fly?
Your righteous life has only been
A stifled chance to find out what that thing was for
So take a chance you don't convince me anymore You need a screw
You need to cast away your blinds
'Cuz when I blew
All the elation wasn't mine And when you find
Oh yeah, God was in your mind
Your righteous life has only been, a righteous lie
Oh yeah, open up your eyes

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>