20 Excuses

The Supervillains

Its a shame you gotta put on makeup today,
I think you look so fine, you look best when you rise.
Its too bad that you have to leave, pay attention
When your driving down the street,
I told you so many times.

Where did you go you were here yesterday,
why did you leave?
why did you leave?
and now im stuck here thinking about your face,
Why am I so week?
why am I so week?

Just that quick my love got into a wreck,
it didnt hurt you but it got my chest.
How could I be so blind?
Since that day all I hear is an excuse,
Im sorry I cant see you fucking RAH RAH RAH,
I heard em all so many times

Where did you go you were here yesterday,
why did you leave?
why did you leave?
and now im stuck here thinking about your face,
Why am I so weak?
why am I so weak?

When you were here we did nothing but fight,
but now that your gone my lifes without light,
I really want to work this out and 20 excuses come out of your mouth,
Just when I thought I'd never be alone again,
You turned around and said we should be friends,
I really want to work this out and 20 excuses come out of your mouth.

And it so hard to stop, calling you around the clock, just so I can sleep, Im always here when your free and now its plain to see,
your getting bored with me.

Where did you go you were here yesterday,
why did you leave?

why did you leave?
and now im stuck here thinking about your face,
Why am I so weak?
why am I so weak?

When you were here we did nothing but fight,
but now that your gone my lifes without light,
I really want to work this out and 20 excuses come out of your mouth,
Just when I thought I'd never be alone again,
You turned around and said we should be friends,
I really want to work this out and 20 excuses come out of your mouth.

Why do you look so fine?
