Too Late

Ten Foot Pole

When she first apologized
It seemed that no one cared
No one cared about her shame
No one cared about her painAnd she could not accept
That no one gave her time
She said, "They will watch me
Yes, by God I'll make them see"My God, I can't believe you're gone
It's too late to say, "Hang on"
Sometimes you just have to wait
This time it's just too lateShe keeps apologizing every single night
Every night she wrings her hands
Every night that's where she standsAnd I cannot accept
I could have changed her fate
If I only would have known
If I only would have knownMy God, I can't believe you're gone
It's too late to say, "Hang on"
Sometimes you have to wait
This time it's just too lateI can't believe you're gone
I can't believe you're goneMy friends keep telling me
That it will be all right
But they don't know the cost
No, they don't know what I've lostThey keep on talking
But to me there's nothing left
There is nothing you can say
There is nothing you can say
