People Like You

Live

In a dream I had
You were standin' all alone
With a dyin' world below
And a microphone
Singin' Hallelujah
I finally broke their mold
Whatever it's gonna take, good luck, keep it real
Where're the boys in Live?
They're pissin' in the mainstream
Open up your cage
Focus all your rage
The world needs people like you
In a dream I had
I was on the stage with Queen
Michael Stipe and Elton John
Bono, Springsteen
Singin' Hallelujah
Rock 'n' roll is King
(King)
Whatever it's gonna take, good luck, keep it real
Where're the boys in Live?
They're pissin' in the mainstream
Open up your cage
Focus all your rage
The world needs people like you
Whatever it's gonna take, good luck, keep it real
Where're the boys in Live?
They're pissin' in the mainstream
Open up your cage
Focus all your rage

The world needs people like you
The world needs people like you
People like you
Motherfuckers like you
People like you
In a dream I had
You were standin' all alone
With a dying world below

And a microphone
Signin' Hallelujah
I finally broke their mold
Whatever it's gonna take, good luck, keep it real
Where're the boys in Live?
They're pissin' in the mainstream
Open up your cage
Focus all your rage
The world needs people like you
Whatever it's gonna take, good luck, keep it real
(Ahh)
Where're the boys in Live?
They're pissin' in the mainstream
(Ahh)
Open up your cage
Focus all your rage
The world needs people like you
The world needs people like you
People like you
Warriors like you
Lovers like you
In a dream I had
With a dying world below
Singin' Hallelujah
