

Heart's a Liar (feat. Rose Elinor Dougall)

Geoff Zanelli & Mark Ronson

You're bad news
Or so I'm told by the women that you knew
I've tried and I failed to share you
Heart breaker
That's what you see when you look in the mirror but I'm wise to your illusion It's no big secret
I've laid it on the line
Take it or leave it
But don't waste my time Can you hear me
No more stupid games
No more tears of sad refrains
If our love's untrue my heart's a liar
No more stupid games
No more tears of sad refrains
If our love's untrue my heart's a liar I'm no fool
A million times I've told you that we're through that you're my kind of trouble
I've got proof
It's in your kiss
I've been dancing round the truth
That life is grey without you It's no big secret
I've laid it on the line
Take it or leave it
But don't waste my time Can you hear me
No more stupid games
No more tears of sad refrains
If our love's untrue my heart's a liar
No more fighting fates
I don't care what people say
If our love's untrue my heart's a liar So don't you change your ways
