

Goodbye

Seven Wiser

Leaving life alone
No one to turn to
No one to wait for me
Is it true that when you wait for someone
You're waiting for something new
I find you there standing all alone
Looking for something wrong
Let me tell you could of been
And how it could have gone so wrong
In my piece of my life
Way before you
Fighting to make them right
Whys it so long to let it go
Too hard to say goodbye
Too hard to say goodbye
Taking time alone
Just taking a moment
To get things right with you
Is it true that you see?
Somebody else
Someone who's not like me
You lead me there
Standing all alone
Looking for something wrong
Let me tell you how
I let myself down
And how it all went so wrong
In my piece of my life
Way before you
Fighting to make them right
Whys it so long to let it go
Too hard to say goodbye
Too hard to say goodbye
I try so hard to make things work for us
But this was the end of it all
Let myself down
I let it get to my head let me drown
