Body of You

Arid

Baby , no matter what love's got to offer
I throw myself down
I'mat your feet
I taste your lips
Of soft deceit
As my retreatBaby no matter what they say about us
I long to go down your river wild
You're God's only child you see
The death of me
The body of you
Broken and still
I'll never know
How good it feels to finally forget you
And all that you are
I'll never know why
Our love has been scarredBaby no matter what love's got
to offer
I'll throwmyself down
I'm at your feet
I taste your lips
Of soft deceit
As my retreatThe body of you
Broken and still
I'll never know
How good it feels to finally forget you
And akll that you are
I'll never know why
Our love has been scarredBaby no matter what they say
about us
I long to god down your river wild
Your God's only child you see The death of meBaby no matter what love's got to offer
I know that it's lost and almost gone
I know you're holding on
