Magic and Makeup

Farrah Franklin

Tv, magazines
a picture perfect me I wish you can understand that things to make who I am man what they mean to me

Sometimes I want to be a mother just want to be a daughter see it's the little things that matter to me

So was it Magic and makeup that made you fall in love with me?
every time you see Farrah
Is it really me you see?
they only show you what they want to ain't always reality
and I don't want to be make believe (Like Magic and makeup)

Sometimes I just need a real friend who loves me sometimes it's hard to tell the difference in this world we live in and you know what I mean, hey yeah!

People hide behind their smiles but it only last a while cause eventually the truth will come out

So was it Magic and makeup
that made you fall in love with me?
every time you see Farrah
Is it really me you see?
ain't always reality
and I don't want to be make believe

Don't want to look around to find that I've wasted so much time and lost the meaning of real life

It can pass you by in the twinkling of a eye in that moment we all can loose sight everyday is a constant fight

So was it Magic and makeup
that made you fall in love with me?
Is it really me you see?
ain't always reality
(Like Magic and makeup)
