

Walk On Water

Kat Dahlia

[VERSE]

You said ya lights, ya left me blind

But I could never turn away

Rather ya black, rather ya white

You always left me in the green

And my shadow's groom

But I never know

Now I'm chasing blue

Are you changing you

You bring the rain, you bring the night

I never get the time of day

I wanna cry, you wanna fight

All this loving goes in vain

Wish you wore my shoes

Cause I torn them through

But what would that prove

I'm so confused

I'm not feeling too well, cause I just can't tell

If I'm entering the gates of, heaven or hell

And I'm trust you, cause I just can't tell

I know you so well

Remember when we fell, remember when we fell[CHORUS]

I'm attracted to the ocean, just because I feel it

Can I walk upon the water

If I'm attracted to the ocean, just because I feel it

Can I walk upon the water

And I'm drowning in emotion

You quickly suffocating, wished I was a little taller

If I'm attracted to the ocean, just because I feel it

Can I walk upon the water[VERSE]

You said ya lights, ya left me blind

But I could never turn away

You always left me in the green

And ya shadow's groom

But I never know

Now I'm chasing blue

Are you changing you

You bring the rain, you bring the night

I never get the time of day
I wanna cry, you wanna fight
All this loving goes in vain
Wish you wore my shoes
Cause I've torn them through
Wish you wore my shoes
Cause I've torn them through
I'm not feeling too well, cause I just can't tell
If I'm entering the gates of heaven or hell
Can I trust you, cause I just can't tell
I know you so well
Remember when we fell, remember when we fell[CHORUS]
I'm attracted to the ocean, just because I feel it
Can I walk upon the water
If I'm attracted to the ocean, just because I feel it
Can I walk upon the water
And now I'm drowning in emotion
You quickly suffocating, wished I was a little taller
If I'm attracted to the ocean, but just because I feel it
Can I walk upon the water[VERSE]
It's a storm a brewing, on my horizon
No matter what I'm choosing, baby I ain't deciding
So we shine, so we shine
A cat told me catch a knife. I'll trade ya promise for my life[CHORUS]
I'm attracted to the ocean
But just because I feel it, I cant walk upon the water
If I'm attracted to the ocean
But just because I feel it, I can't upon the water
And now I'm drowning in emotion
You quickly suffocating, wish I was a little taller
If I'm attracted to the ocean
But just because I feel it, I cant walk upon the water[VERSE]
I can't walk upon the water, no
I'm attracted to the ocean
But I slipped right through, I slipped right through
I drown for you
Baby I slipped right through, I slipped right through
I drown for you
I drown for you
