

Haunted (Tyler Michaud Remix) [feat. Lo-Fi Sugar]

Paul van Dyk

When the light comes in on our pale reflections
Will I resist coming on to you?
For the night protects all that we've invested
I've invested in you 'Cause I'm haunted
I wanted to get you back
Despite the way
I try to forget it's still the same And I'm haunted
My call is without words
Without a way to say
I could never walk away 'Cause I'm haunted
I wanted to get you back
Despite the way
I try to forget it's still the same You are the rise, the rise that falls
Falls from my obsessions, you're the last to know
You've arrived, arrived to my confession
Oh God, all I have to show 'Cause I'm haunted
I wanted to get you back
Despite the way
I try to forget it's still the same And I'm haunted
My call is without words
Without a way to say
I could never walk away 'Cause I'm haunted
I wanted to get you back
Despite the way
I try to forget it's still the same And I'm haunted
My call is without words
Without a way to say
I could never walk away 'Cause I'm haunted
I wanted to get you back
Despite the way
I try to forget it's still the same And I'm haunted
My call is without words
Without a way to say
I could never walk away
