

Black Smith (Throwing Myself Album Version)

Luti-Kriss

I missed the way you were yesterday
Backed away from this call
Watching your eyes deeply widen
Impressed with you, impress with me Perish the thoughts of last words
Everything was new
I've proved that I am yours
You're still waiting, I am yours Staring at you through my hands
I am already yours
Watching as you walked away
You were always a someday Things change and things change
I'm still here again
I've proved that I am yours
And you're still waiting, I am yours Bury my eyes into this life
Bury my eyes into this life
Bury my eyes into this life
Bury my eyes into this life Still pressed for the price
Still I pressed for the price
Still I pressed for the price
Still I pressed for the price
