

Long After Tomorrow

October Project

One fine day
Everything changes in a moment
In her eyes
Secrets of heaven
Disappearing
In the silence
The yearning
Turning to the earth
ForgottenOne old man
Taking a walk inside a garden
In his hand
Secrets of heaven
To be planted
In the soil
In the mysteries
Histories without names
Almost forgotten
Long after tomorrow
Only the wind will speak your name
In the silence
You'll be free of who you wereWhere we are Making a moment of the sunshine
Come so far
Chasing an echo
From the garden
Hearing the whisper
Of the secret
Calling out our names
Forever
Long after tomorrow
Only the wind will speak your name
In the silence
You'll be free of who you were
