Snog

There is nothing wrong with you television set. [Sample]
There is nothing wrong with you television set. [Sample]
We control all that you see and hear. [Sample]
We control all that you see and hear. [Sample]
My life consecrated by the Vogue yearbook
My style dictated by the Rick Astley look
I drive a car but I can't read a book
I don't eat meat except for a little bit of chook
I was born to be mild, like the first suburban child
Born to be king, of the really boring things
My life consecrated by the Vogue yearbook
My style dictated by the Rick Astley look
I drive a car but I can't read a book
I don't eat meat except for a little bit of chook
I was born to be mild, like the first McDonalds child
Born to be king, of the really boring things
My life consecrated by the Vogue yearbook
My style dictated by the Rick Astley look
I drive a car but I can't read a book
I don't eat meat except for a little bit of chook
I have a dream. [sample]
Corperate marshall law. [sample]
I have a dream. [sample]
Corperate marshall law. [sample]
Born to be mild like the first Mc Reagan child,
Born to be king of the really boring things,
My heart controlled by the share outlook
my veins are pumping with the cash I took.
I can't afford the credit I book, out to ponder damage I look.
Credit alert. sample
Do not attempt to think or depression may occur. [sample]
Do not attempt to think. [sample]
Born to be mild, like the first free market child.
Born to be king, of the endless buying binge.
Born to be mild. (x4)
