Something I Said

2-Tones

I?m so confused, I must be losing it, this can?t be right
I never knew that you could choose to love someone
Then change your mind
So I just wonder why and was it something I said?
You tell me once, you tell me twice
You tell me three times more
Tell me everything I want to hear and nothing more
?Cause you know I am on your side no matter what you do
With every consequence it?s your defense on why it?s mine
And I could take it if I knew just why I waste my time with you
So I just have to find out
Was it something I said to you
And was it something we can?t work through
And was it something I made you do
Or was that something you?
So let me ask you, I just have to now that you?re not mine
Do you feel free, have what you need

Or do you still feel scared inside?
?Cause I am on the line and don?t know what to do
No you know I am on the line so
Was it something I said to you
And was it something we can?t work through
And was it something I made you do
Or was that something you?
Sometimes I?m bold and brash, and sometimes I?m prone to crash
And sometimes I say too much, and sometimes it?s not enough
But I?ll never hold you back from something you want so bad
Just tell me so I?m not sad, was it something I said?
Something I said to you
And was it something we can?t work through
And was it something I made you do
Or was it something I said to you, you?
Was it something that we just can?t work through?
Something, something, something you
