Fine Without You

Buuren, Armin Van Feat. Rene, Jennifer

Why don't you feel me? I'm so in need
Is it a wonder I resist from you?
I was the one who fell in this game
Then you took me away from you
I'm fine without you now
I don't need you here
I'm fine without you now
Can you disappear?
I'm fine without you now
I've given you my heart
I'm fine without you now
I've given you, given you everythin'
I'm fine without you now
I've given you my heart
I'm fine without you now
I've given you
I've given you everythin'
I've given you everythin'
I've given you everythin'
I've given you everythin'
You've made it clear now this is the end
No more goodbyes and sympathies from me
All you still want is a physical thing
But you've taken enough from me
I'm fine without you now
I don't need you here
I'm fine without you now
Can you disappear?
I'm fine without you now
I've given you my heart
I'm fine without you now
I've given you, given you everythin'
I'm fine without you now
I've given you my heart
I'm fine without you now
I've given you
I've given you everythin'
I've given you everythin'
I've given you everythin'

I've given you everythin'
I've given you everythin'
Oh, oh
