

One Night, One Chance

Billy Idol

One night, one chance, she do 'most anything
One night, one chance, she do and dream
Sweet dreams for you
Woke up in the morning, I said boy wake up
Nothing will be done if you don't get up
Silence is guilty and the truth can talk
If you got the legs boy, come on let's walk
One night, one chance for you
Shed dream sweet dreams for me and you
Take me out this morning and come on, let me sleep
Been hard pressed to keep it, better hold on me
But silence is guilty and the truth be told
If you got the legs boys, come on let's walk
Is it over? One night she dreamed for you
One night, one chance for you
One day, one night

She dreamed sweet dreams for you
Woke up this morning and now the dream was out of sight
Prison walls are breakin' down
And my threadbare back is whipped right
Silence is guilty and the truth can talk
Well yes, I got the legs, boys, and I, yes I walked
And its over, I'm glad it's over
Are you glad it's over? It's over for one night
One chance for sweet dreams, oh, for you
For one night, for one chance of success
She'll sream and scheme for you
Oh, oh, one night, oh one chance
She'll dream sweet dreams for you
One night, one life too, her hole existence
Has fallen in two
