She Broke You so Softly

Mojave 3

Were you bored of the laughter?
Were you tired of the pain?
Is the bond now broken?
Does nothing remain?Shoulder to shoulder
Like two stones in a bag
Did you rub one another
Until there was nothing, yeah, nothing but dust?But still you talk soft
So desperate and kind
So pure and so pointless
So helpless and blindAnd is there no anger?
Just pills for the pain
My friend you've been wasted
And you will be againAnd you wait for a whirlwind
To unwind your soul
And you cry like a baby
You feel so alone'Cause she broke you so softly
You can't see the blame
Like a dog with a bone
You refuse to let goAnd still you talk soft
So desperate and kind
So pure and so pointless
So helpless and blindAnd is there no anger?
Just pills for the pain
My friend you've been wasted
And you will be againStill you talk soft
So desperate and kind
So pure and so pointless
So helpless and blindAnd is there no anger?
Just pills for the pain
My friend you've been wasted
And you will be againMy friend you've been wasted
And you will be again
