California

Wilson Phillips

Sitting in a park in Paris, France
Reading the news and it sure looks bad
They won't give peace a chance
That was just a dream some of us had Still a lot are left to see
But I wouldn't want to stay here

It's too old and cold and settled in its ways here
But CaliforniaCalifornia, I'm coming home

I'm going to see the folks I dig

I'll even kiss a sunset pig

California, I'm coming homeI met a redneck on a Grecian Isle

Who did the goat dance very well

He gave me back my smile

But he kept my camera to sell

Oh the rogue, the red red rogue

He cooked good omelettes and stews

And I might have stayed on with him there

But my heart cried out for you, CaliforniaCalifornia, I'm coming home

Oh make me feel good rock 'n' roll band

I'm your biggest fan

California, I'm coming homeOh it gets so lonely

When you're walking

And the streets are full of strangers

All the news of home you read

Just gives you the blues

Just gives you the bluesSo I bought me a ticket

I caught a plane to Spain

Went to a party down a red dirt road

There were lots of pretty people there

Reading Rolling Stone, reading Vogue

They said, how long can you hang around?

I said a week, maybe two

Just until my skin turns brown

Then I'm going home to CaliforniaCalifornia, I'm coming home

Will you take me as I am?

Strung out on another man

California, I'm coming home

I'm coming home

I'm coming home

I'm coming home Yeah(California) Take me as I am Take me as I am Will you Will you (California)
