

Losing

Joe

[Verse 1:] You ask me questions when you know the answer

Now that's silly, silly to me

Now you wondering if I should love you

That's silly, silly to me

How could I love someone who

Who only breaks me into, a million pieces, what do I do

Put it back together, but without you

[Pre-Chorus:] I think it's best (I really do)

We just don't fit (Not me and you)

All I can say, there's a better way

This is not a game, I'm gonna play

I sympathize (I really don't),

I realize, (You prolly wont)

Everything you said,

Never again,

I'm good with that

If that's where it's at

[Chorus:] Love is no longer in the building

Everybody's losing,

Everybody's losing

Nobody is winning here baby

Everybody's losing,

Everybody loses here

[Verse 2:] Stop telling people that we're still together

Now that's crazy, crazy to me

Cause everybody know we ain't together

Now that's crazy, crazy baby

I can't be loving someone who

Who only breaks me into to, a million pieces, what do I do

Put it back together, but without you

[Pre-Chorus:] I think it's best (I really do)

We just don't fit (Not me and you)

All I can say, there's a better way

This is not a game, I'm gonna play

I sympathize (I really don't),

I realize, (You prolly wont)

Everything you said,

Never again,

I'm good with that
If that' where it's at
[Chorus:]Love is no longer in my building
Everybody's losing,
Everybody's losing
Nobody is winning here baby
Everybody's losing,
Everybody loses here
[Bridge:]I can't say that I don't think about you
Because we both know that isn't true
The fact is that I think about you
Why do we have to lose
I hate that we, won't get the chance to see, our potential baby
We're too far to get all that back
[Chorus: x2]Love is no longer in the building
Everybody's losing,
Everybody's losing
Nobody is winning here baby
Everybody's losing,
Everybody loses
