

Shout at the Moon

Mallory Knox

These streets they are so cold
I've been freezing here for days
I've been longing for your company
Like the sun you've cast astray
Well it's lonely in these bones
There's no feeling in this face

If you look into my eyes my dear there's no hope for saving grace Oh is it lonely where you are tonight?

Oh is it lonely for you? So every night I shout at the moon, shout at the moon

I'm walking with a stranger chasing shadows in my room

Yeah every night I shout at the moon, shout at the moon

I'm holding on to questions I don't know the answers to

And now hold on to me if you love me

Do you love me?

'Cause every night I shout at the moon, shout at the moon So we'd wander on our own

Chase the night and seize the day

Waste no time for insecurity in the life that creates

So I thought you wouldn't have me any other way

But that didn't seem to be okay

So you walked out, out of everything we had and I find myself alone So every night I shout at the moon, shout at the moon

I'm walking with a stranger chasing shadows in my room

Yeah every night I shout at the moon, shout at the moon

I'm holding on to questions I don't know the answers to

And now hold on to me if you love me

Do you love me?

So every night I shout at the moon, shout at the moon, woah Oh Every night I shout at the moon, shout at the moon

'Cause every night I hold on to you, hold on to you

And now hold on to me if you love me

Do you love me?

'Cause every night I shout at the moon, shout at the moon

(Shout at the moon, shout at the moon)

'Cause every night I shout at the moon, shout at the moon

(Shout at the moon, shout at the moon)

Yeah every night I shout at the moon, shout at the moon

Oh oh oh oh

Oh oh oh oh
