Forever Making Love

Jean B. Gerbier

I
Forever making love. Romantic times alone
If I had walked to a fine museum, I would look around for your Eternal face. I imagined myself the maker, that molded you.
I wanna be honest and true to your fidelity. If you are true
And honest too, like a pair of doves we'll fly away

Chorus
Forever making love. Forever making love, sweet loving oh yeah.
Romantic times alone. Romantic times alone, holding each others'
Hands ooh ooh ooh. Forever making love. I like the way you be hugging Me, holding me, caressing me o yeah. Romantic times alone. How can I exist
Without you loving me. forever making love

II
I want you in my life deep enough to explore hidden curiosity of Eternal life. If I was a baby, I would crawl on my stomach, digesting
