

VIVID DREAMS (feat. River Tiber)

KAYTRANADA

In a dream I can see you crystal clear
I'm awake I begin disappear
In a dream I can see you crystal clear
I'm awake I begin disappear
She's burning here below my mind
The green and purple smoke it rises, rises
As every hidden wish collides
Those illusions but I can't deny
She's burning in below my mind
The green and purple smoke it rises, rises
As every hidden wish collides
I'm falling and I can't deny it
I'm falling in
